Sir Winter

I heard Sir Winter coming.
He crept out of his bed
and rubbed his thin and freezing hands:
'I'll soon be up!' he said.

'I'll shudder at the keyhole and rub it all the while;
I'll strip the trees of all their leaves and strew them on the floor.'

'I'll harden every puddle that Autumn thinks is his - I'll lay a sparkling quilt of snow on everything that is!'

'I'll bring a load of darkness
as large as any cool and drive my husky dogs across the world, from pole to pole.'

'Oho! How you will shiver!
And then I heard him say:
'But in the middle of it all I'll give you

CHRISTMAS DAY!'

Wendell Rees
